E. J. Carpenter's "At Cripple Creek" is in all respects superior to the class of plays we have been accustomed to at the Opera House, and the patrons of Bell's Opera House will be more than delighted at this production. Date Sept. 23. Playing at the Lyceum Theatre in Cincinnati all of this week.

Lovers of melodrama will be given a treat at Bell's Opera House Monday, Sept. 23, when E. J. Carpenter's scenic production of "At Cripple Creek" will be presented. This story of Western mining life is in all respects superior to the classic plays of this nature which have been presented heretofore. The author has combined pathos, human heart interests and the good and the bad are shown with strong contrasts. Clever and wholesome comedy abound and the play is presented by a company of unusual strength.

In "At Cripple Creek," which will be presented at Bell's Opera House for one night, Monday, Sept. 23. Several types new to the stage are introduced and clever character drawing is one of the most commendable features of the play. Clever and wholesome comedy, so cleverly is the plot unfolded and motives blended that laughter comes in the wake of every tear. It is embellished with a wealth of special scenery and is presented by a company of unusual strength.

The Memorial to the Revolutionary Soldiers.

George Gall, Sr., Samuel Gibson, John W. Harper, Joseph Horn, T. Anthony Sonner, John Richardson, Wm. Puckett, Wm. Van Winkle, Chas. White, Daniel Tyler, Samuel Strain, Aaron Ruse, George Spickard, Captain James Collier, John Tyler, Thos. Barnard, Lewis Robinson, Reason Moberly, Wm. Buntain, Elijah Newton, Frederick Koon, Jacob Barnett, Drummond Smith, Evan Evans, Benjamin Johnson, Wm. Taylor, Edward Byrum, Ashley Johnson, John Emery, David Smalley, Wm. Higgins and John Crawford.

The above list contains the names of the Revolutionary soldiers whose graves have been located in Highland County. The graves of the following named soldiers have not been found:

Beverly Milner, John Robbins, Jno. Strange, Jno. Middletown, Peter Snider, John W. Spargur, Sr., Wm. Smith, Stephen Ogden, Wm. Boatman, Sr., John Mahaffy and Andrew Sharper, Sr.

In nearly all cases, these graves are in isolated places, neglected family graveyards or open fields, making it impossible to mark them in a suitable or enduring manner. The Wah-wil-away Chapter D. A. R. wishing to perpetuate the memory of these brave defenders and preservers of our nation, ask the assistance and co-operation of all citizens of Highland County in completing the location of these graves and erecting a suitable memorial on which may be inscribed all of these names and many others who may deserve a place on this roll of honor.

Will any descendant of these men or any persons having any knowledge of these graves kindly correspond with Mrs. Elizabeth R. Rockhold.

Perhaps no appropriation of the Carnegie fund for the advancement of teaching has been more fittingly bestowed than in the case of Miss Sarah Skinner, who for thirty-two years has been the head of the Latin department at the Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio. Miss Skinner's thoroughness of scholarship has, to a remarkable degree, left its impress upon hundreds of students, as well as upon the institution which she is now leaving.

Death of J. B. Gossett.

The following regarding the death of a former citizen of Highland county is clipped from the Gotohe, (Okla.) Gazette of Aug. 23:

"J. B. Gossett, of Pleasant View, passed away Monday night after a fortnight's illness. He had not been in good health for some months, being a sufferer from diabetes, which resulted in uramic poisoning, which caused his death. The funeral took place at the house, and the body taken to Waukomis for burial.

"The deceased was a veteran of the civil war, serving with an Ohio regiment. He came to Oklahoma in 1903 from Ohio, and made his home near Pleasant View until his death. A wife and several grown children survive him.

"Mr. Gossett was one of those delightful characters whom everyone likes, making friends with old and young. He was a man of clean morals, high ideals; an earnest Christian and a member of the Methodist Church.

"The neighborhood of Pleasant View will cherish his memory for years to come, and join with the family in mourning his death."

Young men and ladies with ambition should learn telegraphy. Under the new 8-hour law, which goes into effect next March, fully 15,000 additional telegraphers are required by the railroads in the United States. Positions pay from $50 to $75 per month to beginners. For full information write to the National Telegraph Institute, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a good hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Aid nature a little. Give your hair a good hair-food.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

You need not hesitate about using this new Hair Vigor from any fear of its changing the color of your hair. The new Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents premature grayness, but does not change the color of the hair even to the slightest degree.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
